MANY TOURISTS ARE COMING.

Crowds Flocking to East Coast.—Trains
From the North and West Heavily Laden With Passengers.

Every train now entering Daytona from both north and south is well laden with tourists, and there is also a great rush to the other resorts on the coast. A Daily News representative, in his rounds the past several days, has noticed a perceptible increase in the number of arrivals at the hotels, and in many instances guests have been turned away from them.

The representatives of the various railroads entering Jacksonville, have received advices that the trains leaving Washington Saturday, immediately after the Longworth-Roosevelt wedding, were crowded with tourists bound for various points in Florida.

Hundreds of people of national social importance deferred their visit to Florida this year until after the White House wedding. Now that the much talked of event is a thing of the past, there is a greater rush to the Florida resorts than at any time this season.

Lent will begin within ten days and the prospects are that the month of March will see more people in Florida, at the various resorts throughout the State, than during the same month in any of the past seasons.

It has become quite a fad with the "smart set" of New York, Boston and other cities to spend the Lenten season in Florida. As long as they are away from home they are perfectly willing to enter into the gay social whirl at the resorts of Florida, Nassau and Cuba.

Those who have visited Florida in past years are aware that March is one of the most pleasant months in the year to spend in the State. While in the North March is one of the most disa-

GAY WEEK AT ORMOND.

Program of Interesting Events Has Been Arranged—Ball Game on Wednesday.

This week promises to be the gayest yet at Ormond. A large program of events is posted at the Hotel Ormond, and much pleasure is anticipated. The Palm Beach baseball nine is expected to play against Ormond there, Wednesday. The games between these two teams are always closely contested, both sides having excellent players. The game between the Ormond team and the Tomoka nine, which was played recently, resulted 12 to 7 in favor of the regular Ormond team.

Thursday evening, February 22, following the events on the beach, in front of Bretton Inn, there will be an amusing program of water sports in the swimming pool. Among them will be tub races, walking of greased poles, swimming and diving contests, etc. It will be an evening of fun for everyone.

greable months of the winter, on account of storms, sleet, thawing, freezing, slush, mud, and bad colds generally, in Florida, it is as a rule, ideal time of the year. Orange trees are in full bloom, the magnolias fill the air with their fragrance, boating parties on the lakes and streams are greatly enjoyed, and along the southern coast, surf bathing is the fad.

The wise tourist knows what the weather is at home and never thinks of leaving Florida during March. Those who cannot get away from home earlier in the season always make it a point to spend March in Florida, consequently nearly every hotel in the State has received numerous requests for reservations during the coming month.

On Drainage Mission.

Napoleon B. Broward, governor of Florida, passed through Daytona, Sunday afternoon, enroute for Fort Lauderdale, accompanied by F. H. Neles, of Chicago. The Governor's visit to Fort Lauderdale is to look after his Everglades drainage scheme. Mr. Neles is connected with the company that is building the dredges for the drainage work.

FISHING IS EXCELLENT.

The Veteran Fishermen are Well Satisfied With the Sport.—Many Fine Catches Made.

Visitors to Daytona at the present time, are spending much of their time on the three bridges opposite the city, trying their luck with the finny tribe. Usually the good sportsmen who venture out, are successful in landing a large number of fish, but the inexperienced angler, who does not catch fifty or sixty fish is thoroughly disgusted and never returns a second time to try his luck. Recently, a lady on the Central Bridge was heard to remark, "I have been here for an hour and I have only caught twenty fish." A veteran angler, who was perched on the railing a dozen feet distant trying his luck the entire morning, was not as successful, though he was satisfied. He thinks the place an excellent fishing ground, and he returns to his favorite location every day.

Died At Ormond.

James A. Chesboro, aged 17, died Sunday morning at Ormond, from enlargement of the heart.

The deceased had been ill for quite a time, and though his death was a sad blow to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chesboro, it was not altogether unexpected. The remains will be shipped to Canandaigua, N. Y., this afternoon.

Commodore J. H. Allen, of the Halifax River Yacht Club, a clever entertainer has no superior and but few equals. At card tricks he is very proficient and he is in possession of numerous other tricks of a puzzling nature. Saturday evening at the Daytona House, he kept the guests of that hostelry entertained for quite a time and they are all loud in their praise of the manner in which he performs them. One of the guests of the house was heard to remark that the commodore must be possessed with some spiritual quality and he, in turn, gave the information that Spiritualism and Mormonism originated in his hometown, Palmyra, N. Y.

FINE ORANGE GROVE SOLD.

Strong Interest is Being Manifested in Small Groves Near Daytona.
Many Changing Hands.

Rieman's Real Estate Agency reports the sale on Saturday of the desirable orange grove located at the southwest corner of Ridgewood Avenue and the Big Tree Road. Charles H. Foy disposes of the grove to Robert H. Hilton, who buys it as an investment, in the expectation of later laying it out in building lots. This is a very choice piece of property, fronting on three roads and extending west from Ridgewood to the railroad at Blake Station.

Mr. Rieman states that he has also sold an option on another grove nearby, and says that there is a strong interest being shown in small orange groves in this locality, as well as in Daytona property of all kinds.

DIALECT RECITAL AND MUSICALS.

Miss Clara Mourey, the noted Elocutionist, will give one of her rare entertainments in this city, Thursday evening, Feb. 22, for benefit of the building fund of Epworth Hall. Admission 25c.

Communicated.

Editor Daily News:—
Please allow me space in your columns to say that in no event would I be a candidate for re-election in case there would be another election. I do not say that the election was illegal, but if the election is contested I will contribute to a fund to see that a right and just election is held and one that is legal.

HENRY SCHMIDT.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Geo. Schappert and J. L. Krish, of Brooklyn, returned to the city yesterday from a trip to Palm Beach and Miami, and are again guests of Schmidt's Villa, where they will remain until March 1st.

F. E. Thompson, Roy A. Faye and F. M. Young, of Boston, returned to Daytona Saturday, from a cruise down the East Coast. They spent the time hunting and fishing.

SMITH TENDERS RESIGNATION.

After Many Years' Service in the Florida State Troops Capt. C. L. Smith
Resigns His Command.

Captain Charles L. Smith has tendered his resignation to the Adjutant General as the commanding officer of Co. K, Second Regiment, Florida State Troops, better known locally as the Halifax Rifles. The resignation is to take effect at once. Captain Smith's reason for his action is that he is about to leave the State.

Captain Smith is one of the oldest military officers in Florida in point of continuous service. His first service in the organized militia dating back to 1884.

The news of his resignation will be received with regret by military men and civilians alike all over the State.

Just who will be elected his successor is not known, but it is quite likely that Lieutenant J. D. C. Morris will be elected to the position.

H. B. Yarbrough spent Sunday with friends in DeLand.

FOR SALE—One of the most beautifully situated homes in Florida, 190 feet above sea level, overlooking clear spring fed lake, with views of hills for some miles. ### I BLOW YOU A KISS

By William Stanley Besumont Braithwaite

I blow you a kiss on the evening wind, My dear, wherever you be;
Up in the north or down in the south,
Or over the rolling sea.
I blow you a kiss, but after the kiss
Do you know what follows, my dear?
Something the wind cannot bring to you—
Only a little tear.

TIME TO BE WISE

By Walter Savage Landor

Y ES; I write verses now and then,
But blunt and flaccid is my pen.
No longer talked of by young men
As rather clever;
In the last quarter are my eyes,
You see it by their form and size;
Is it not time then to be wise?
Or now or never.

Fairest that ever sprang from Eve!
While Time allows the short reprieve, Just look at me! would you believe
'Twas once a lover?
I cannot clear the five-bar gate;
But, trying first its timber's state,
Climb stiffly up, take breath, and wait
To trundle over.

Through gallopade I cannot swing
The entangling blooms of Beauty's spring;
I cannot say the tender thing,
Be it true or false,
And am beginning to opine
Those girls are only half divine Whose waists you wicked boys entwine In giddy waltz.

I fear that arm above that shoulder;
I wish them wiser, graver, older,
Sedate, and no harm if colder,
And panting less.
Ah! people were not half so wild
In former days, when, starchy mild, Upon her high-heeled Essex smiled
The brave Queen Bess.

MORNING

By Emily Dickinson

Will there really be a morning?
Is there such a thing as day?
Could I see it from the mountains If I were as tall as they?
Has it feet like water lilies?
Has it feathers like a bird?
Is it brought from famous countries
Of which I've never heard?
Oh, some scholar, oh, some sailor,
Oh, some wise man from the skies,
Please to tell a little pilgrim
Where the place called morning lies!

MY SHADOW

By Robert Louis Stevenson

HAVE a little shadow that goes in and out with me,
And what can be the use of him is more than I can see.
He is very, very like me from the heels up to the head,
And I see him jump before me when I jump into my bed.

The funniest thing about him is the way he likes to grow—
Not at all like proper children, which is always very slow,
For he sometimes shoots up taller, like an India rubber ball,
And he sometimes gets so little that there's none of him at all.

One morning very early, before the sun was up,
I rose and found the shining dew on every buttercup,
But my lazy little shadow, like an arrant sleepyhead,
Had stayed at home behind me and was fast asleep in bed.

Three R's—Repairing Rips and Rents.
If some American mothers heard that their young Jimmies or Waldoes or Clarences had to perform the services in their private schools that English boys have to do in similar institutions there would be pity and indignation—pity for the youths and indignation at the hard hearted master. But the custom doesn't seem to hurt the young Brits. At a school in Brighton where boys receive the first half decade of their learning even future peers are taught to sew on their buttons and darn their hose and rents in their underclothing. Only their outer garments are sent to the tailor. Any shirking of the tasks brings the same punishment that ill prepared lessons would. On certain days the small boys are taught the rudiments of cooking and laying a table, and at all times they must keep their rooms in order. It is true some parents object to this, but they must submit or make their sons away. The majority of fathers believe the plan a wise one.—New York Press.

JOHN B. STETSON

PASSES AWAY.

Stricken With Apoplexy Early Sunday and Never Regained Consciousness.

Remains Sent North.

John B. Stetson, President of the Board of Trustees of the Stetson University and the millionaire hat manufacturer of Philadelphia, died Sunday at one o'clock at Gillette, his winter home near DeLand. Mr. Stetson was stricken with apoplexy early in the morning and notwithstanding the best medical attention he died without regaining consciousness.

His wife was the only member of his immediate family present. Mr. Stetson had recently been feeling better than usual. He attended the university trustees' meeting Thursday, and the presentation day exercises at the auditorium Friday. The family and friends left on Sunday's midnight train for Philadelphia with the body. The entire town of DeLand is in mourning, and his death is keenly felt.

John B. Stetson was the son of a farmer and was born in Orange, N. J., in 1830. He opened a small shop in Philadelphia in 1865, became a large manufacturer, and took great interest in the welfare of his employees, who now number 3,500. He was the founder of the John B. Stetson University, at DeLand, and its principal supporter. He leaves a widow, two sons and a married daughter.

Can Talk Without Tongues.
"There seems to be a mistaken impression abroad," remarked a doctor the other day in speaking of the case of a man who had his tongue cut out in an effort to cure a case of cancer of that member, "that when a man is unfortunate enough to lose his tongue, therefore, all power of speech is denied him. This is not so. While it is true that not many men survive this operation for any great length of time, it is equally true that they can speak so long as they live and with only a comparatively slight impediment in their utterances. If you will hold a pencil crossways between your teeth and speak while it remains in that position you can get just the effect it has on human speech when the tongue is entirely removed."

Sea or Desert?
If it be true, as conjectured by the latest explorers, that Lake Chad is rapidly drying up, the process will probably be regarded by the geologists as simply a continuation of one which has been going on for ages in northern Africa. The whole of the Sahara was certainly once either an arm of the sea or a vast lake, and Lake Chad is probably only the final remnant of that huge sheet of water. The Sahara sea must always have been very shallow, a fact which made its evaporation easy, and Lake Chad is reported to be little more than a morass over the greater portion of its area.

Giving Them Fits.
Some years ago George F. Haley of Biddeford was trying his first criminal case before the supreme judicial court of Maine, with Chief Justice John A. Peters on the bench. Mr. Haley was in the middle of his plea when a man in the audience fell over in a convulsion. The young lawyer stopped, disconcerted. "Go on, sir; go on," said the chief justice. "You're giving them fits!"

A Lawyer's Trick.

When Baron Bramwell was once sitting on the crown side on the south Wales circuit counsel for the defense in a certain case asked leave to address the jury in Welsh. The case being a simple one, permission was given without demur. He said but very few words. The baron also did not think much comment was necessary, but was somewhat startled by a prompt verdict of acquittal.

"What was it," he afterward inquired, "that Mr. L. said to the jury?" "Oh, he just said: 'This case, gentlemen, lies in a nutshell. You see yourselves exactly how it stands. The judge is an Englishman, the prosecuting counsel is an Englishman, the complainant is an Englishman, but you are Welsh, and I am Welsh, and the prisoner is Welsh. Need I say more? I leave it all to you.'"

It is scarcely necessary to mention, says the writer of "Some Legal Reminiscences," that Baron Bramwell did not allow the experiment to be repeated of addressing the jury in a language which he did not understand.

Name Coincidences.

An English paper is collecting name coincidences. At Cambridge university are two Japanese students, M. Boda and M. Wisugi (pronounced whiskey). Their names are side by side on the residence list. J. Hunter reports that he was once asked to fill a vacant village pulpit. The regular preacher bore the name of Fox. In Leeds Miss Ormington, married a Mr. Pool. There is fear that an offspring of this happy union will hyphenate the two surnames. Another matrimonial case is quoted by a correspondent from the published "Diary of John Epps, M. D." On page 605 the doctor notes: "Feb. 17. This morning a patient consulted me named Ann Devil. Finding she was a single woman, I suggested that some day she might become Ann Angel, which made her smile, though she was in great pain." A note made later states, "The curious thing is that she did marry a Mr. Angel."

ORANGE CITY MINERAL SPRING WATER

St. Louis, Jan. 13, 1905.
Mr. C. A. Bullen, Manager,
Orange City Mineral Water Co.
Orange City, Fla.
Dear Sir: In reply to your esteemed favor of Jan. 9th, we beg to advise you that on referring to the official list of awards as approved by the Superior Jury, we find you have been awarded a Collaborator's SILVER MEDAL.
Your representative, with this document in his possession, has an unanswerable argument, as the declaration proclaims your goods to be WITHOUT AN EQUAL. The Jury of Awards has placed you in a position to officially and most effectively make known the fact that you have received the highest award the world can give you for the excellence of your product.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRactions.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of magnificent forest trees, and among these trees is the town of to-day, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palm-trees, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampeleopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world.
Daytona has many miles of well-graded, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

Wheelman's Paradise
and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinement of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelties, works, an opera house, electric light for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,500. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goddall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world.
The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as lacadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a bump makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-legged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exciting sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palmfringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbside, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet.
A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing.
Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year while the strong and expert swimmer can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the unexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach avilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being subdivided and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.
Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goddall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Hal-fax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 500 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yel-lowtail, cavalla, whiting, drum, sheephead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon.
Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight.
Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.
Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

A few mornings ago, while the reporter was on his way to the office to get up some early copy for the printers, he saw a visitor whom he had met a few days before at one of the hotels. The gentleman said, "It is now something after six o'clock and I have already walked to the Clarendon, at Seabreeze, and I am on my way back to the hotel. I take this walk every morning and I find that it is working wonders for me." He said that there were several other enthusiastic walkers at his hotel, but that he had long since been classed as the greatest one of the lot.
